This is a petition of Habeas corpus. The alleged detenue is present today and she stated that she is not under illegal custody. It is complained by the petitioner that there is a threat by the 5th respondent to the life of the petitioner and the elder daughter. Police should see that lives of the petitioner and family members are not threatened. Since the alleged detenue is a major and as she stated that she is not under illegal custody, she is allowed to go wherever she likes. With the above observations this writ petition is disposed of.
